Cover Letter

Dear [Hiring Manager],

My name is Christian Galicia, hailing from Guatemala, Central America. Throughout my career, I have primarily engaged in independent projects with companies and clients in Guatemala. Additionally, I have collaborated remotely with organizations in the United States, Panama, Colombia, the United Kingdom, and Catalunya, Spain. My experience encompasses various roles, including developer, project manager, and DevOps technician.

I am reaching out with this cover letter expressing my interest in applying for a Developer or Project Manager position within your organization. With over 15 years of experience in these areas, I am confident that my profile aligns seamlessly with the requirements of this position. Currently, I am seeking a telecommuting opportunity within the American time zone or near.

I am recognized for my ability to quickly learn, proactive approach, and efficiency in working within tight and scheduled timelines. My commitment to coding standards and meticulous documentation are foundational aspects of my professional approach.

I would love the opportunity for an interview with your team to discuss how my skills and experience can contribute to the success of your organization. You can contact me via email at xcgalicia@gmail.com or visit my online CV at <http://www.cgalicia.space> for more information about my professional journey.

I sincerely appreciate the time you have dedicated to reviewing my application and look forward to hearing from you soon. If there is no response, I will follow up in a few days.

Thank you very much for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Christian Galicia
